

Andy's hand didn't work. He couldn't pick things up with it or even hold things with it, it was just - "there".

That guy's hand doesn't work

In the prayer building....
On the Holy day

What's he up to??

There were some clever guys that knew all of the rules. One rule said "Don't work on a Holy day" They didn't like Jesus so they would troll him.

What do you think?
Should I do good things or bad on the Holy day?
